this connection, the DCI noted that DCI Duty Officers should always bear in mind that because an important message has been delivered to the Department or the Pentagon, this does not assure that it has been brought to high level officials' attention. Cline also noted that he and several other officers had lunched on Friday with Webb of NASA and given him briefings. He noted that Pierre Salinger is going to make a trip to the Far East and that he will be given briefings prior to his departure.
